

Ms. Wendy Gao

Wendy joined Cargill in March, 2011 and holds the position of Director of North Asia Regional Regulatory Affairs. She has the responsibility for providing leadership and technical guidance to ensure regulatory compliance of all the food and feed products produced and traded in Greater China, Japan and South Korea as well as leveraging the public-private partnership to collaborate with all the food safety stakeholders to improve the food safety in China. Wendy has been engaged in scientific and regulatory affairs for 16 years and has rich experience in food safety, nutrition and regulations.

Wendy was previously the Regulatory Affairs Manager of PepsiCo Foods for Greater China for five years. She was responsible for guiding the regulatory compliance for PepsiCo Snacks and Quaker products produced and sold in Greater China. Prior to joining PepsiCo Foods, she was employed with DSM Nutritional Products for three years and held the position of Scientific Affairs Executive.

Wendy holds the MBA from University of Southampton and B.S. in Pharmaceutical Chemistry from Peking University Health Science Center.