New mapping of our scientific activities

Our scientific activities are grouped in 6 overarching fundamental themes to stimulate cross-fertilization of ideas between our task forces and facilitate their alignment.

Food safety

Science-driven activities

- Identification and prioritisation of emerging food safety issues
- Cross-fertilization of ideas between our task forces and facilitate their alignment
- New mapping of our scientific activities

Nutrition, Food safety, Environment, Consumer science, Health, Risk assessment, Obesity, Packaging, Functional foods, Biomarkers...
